DATA PROTECTION ACT 1998 - USE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

As you may be aware, the UK is one of the most highly regulated financial centres in the world. This is to safeguard the interests of consumers and other persons purchasing and being advised about investments, insurance and other financial products and in use of their personal data. Against this backdrop, we are required to make certain regulatory and statutory declarations to you.

If instructed by you, we collect data during our initial and other meetings with you about you and your family. We will also be collecting data about you and your family from other persons. We collect the data through note-taking and filling in of questionnaires about you and your family's circumstances.

We may make checks with credit rating agencies to authenticate and verify your identity and credit status. We also make checks with Institutions with whom you have policies of insurance and investments and with your mortgage provider. These checks are to help us with our obligations at law and generally to ensure that we provide you with advice that suits your circumstances. The scope and extent of the gathering of information from third parties depends on what type of service you are taking from us.

It has been disclosed to you that we are Appointed Representatives of Sesame Limited, the largest independent distributor of financial and other insurance products in the United Kingdom. Sesame is responsible for ensuring that the sales we make to you and advice we provide to you is compliant with the regulatory regime in the United Kingdom. All of your data will therefore be passed to Sesame for regulatory and other purposes, including monitoring that its mandated sales and advice process is being followed, if you make a complaint or Sesame is requested by the FSA to undertake a review of the sale or advice. This is a reassuring process as Sesame has one of the largest and comprehensive regulatory compliance teams that monitor and ensure utmost high standards in the finance industry.

How is your information used?

Primarily, we use your data and data about your family's circumstances to provide advice to you and complete transactions on your behalf. We analyse and assess your data to maintain and develop our relationships with you.

Depending on the instructions we receive from you, we may pass your data to other professional advisers to enable us to provide advice most suited to your circumstances. Usually, this would be referrals to local accountants, solicitors, tax advisers and sometimes to specialist advisers in the financial and insurance industry where we do not feel we have appropriate expertise. We, and any third party specialist advisers to whom we introduce you, will, of course, pass your data to Institutions if you agree to purchase or amend policies and products as part of the sales and advice process.

We pass your data to Sesame so that it can monitor the sales and advice process that we are obliged to use as its Appointed Representative. This includes money laundering checks, compliance and regulatory reporting and fraud prevention. Copies of the files we create about you may be retained by Sesame so that in future it can investigate any concerns you or appropriate authorities may have about the sales and advice we give to you.

Sesame will retain your data according to the statutory requirements for regulatory products. For instance, if you are given specialist pension advice, the data will be retained indefinitely. If you want details of the statutory retention periods for various product types please contact us and we will obtain the latest legal position from Sesame on your behalf.

Your data is held in our and Sesame's offices in computer-based and paper-based filing systems.

Sesame may process your information in countries that are outside the European Economic Area, Sesame has taken appropriate steps to ensure the same level of protection for your personal information in other countries as in the European Economic Area.

We may introduce you to Institutions who process your information in countries that are outside the European Economic Area, which do not offer the same level of protection for your personal data. While the data protection laws in these countries are not equivalent to the EEA, Sesame has received assurances from those Institutions that they have taken appropriate steps to ensure adequate protection for your personal information and created equivalent rights as if your data was processed in the European Economic Area.
